

TouringMag Checklist

- ☐ 1. Toolkit with wrenches, pliers, and screwdrivers
- ☐ 2. Tire repair kit
- ☐ 3. Portable air compressor
- ☐ 4. Multi-tool
- ☐ 5. Zip ties and duct tape
- ☐ 6. First aid kit
- ☐ 7. Flashlight
- ☐ 8. Battery jump starter
- ☐ 9. Assemble your toolkit by including a variety of wrenches, pliers, and screwdrivers suitable for your mo
- ☐ 10. Make sure your tire repair kit is complete and learn how to use it before your trip.
- ☐ 11. Ensure your portable air compressor is charged or has a sufficient power source.
- ☐ 12. Pack a multi-tool with features like a knife, can opener, and scissors for versatility.
- ☐ 13. Include zip ties and duct tape for quick, temporary fixes.
- ☐ 14. Carry a basic first aid kit to handle minor injuries.
- ☐ 15. Have a reliable flashlight for visibility during night-time repairs.
- ☐ 16. Consider a battery jump starter to deal with dead batteries without assistance.
- ☐ 17. Familiarize yourself with all tools and practice using them before your journey begins.
- ☐ 18. Regularly check and replace expired or worn-out items in your first aid and repair kits.