

TouringMag Checklist

- ☐ 1. GPS unit compatible with motorcycles
- ☐ 2. Mounting bracket
- ☐ 3. Phillips screwdriver
- ☐ 4. Allen wrench set
- ☐ 5. Cable ties
- ☐ 6. Electrical tape
- ☐ 7. Choose the ideal mounting location on your handlebars.
- ☐ 8. Secure the mounting bracket using the appropriate screws and tools.
- ☐ 9. Attach the GPS unit to the mounting bracket.
- ☐ 10. Route the power cable to your motorcycle's power source and secure with cable ties.
- ☐ 11. Connect the power cable to the motorcycle, ensuring proper insulation with electrical tape.
- ☐ 12. Test the GPS setup to ensure it turns on and receives a signal.
- ☐ 13. Regularly update your GPS maps for accurate navigation.
- ☐ 14. Consider investing in a Bluetooth-enabled GPS for hands-free operation.